Soft sung melodies on blue notes. She tells us her story... And we know we never quite heard just this one before.

*It's not loud...
It's not trying to convince us of anything.
It's not pushy in any direction.
It just is.
And it won't be denied.*

"It just is"

Maja Alderin is an artist & songwriter who left her roots in southern Sweden and moved to the outskirts of Stockholm where she lives in peace among old ladies and apple trees.

She uses her piano to write hits about love, with a pink plastic flamingo and two dancing miniature poodles in the audience. With her thrilling voice she sings herself into our Monday lives while playing sparkling melodies of blue tones on the keys.

Her upcoming "Darling EP" is produced in Nashville, home of singer&songwriters.
